Project Overview

Waking up to Bosphorus will be your daily privilege.

This mansion is one of the iconic mansions in the urban history of Istanbul. Previously owned by Mr. Asım Öge, the mansion was used as a family house until early 60's.

It is a 6-storey building with the street level entrance at the fourth floor.

Your new apartment is at the fifth floor. You would only need to go up one floor and you are there.

There is also an elevator in case you would like to go up from the dock to your home.

A major partial renovation has been undertaken in 2020.
